Month Gone By – Markets

Month Gone By - Markets (period ended January 31, 2022)

Markets were slightly jittery last month as surging cases of omicron, rising inflation, and a hawkish tone by the global central banks weighed on sentiments. The Nifty index closed 0.1% lower for the month of January. Utilities, Energy, Consumer Discretionary and Financials ended the month in the green while IT, Consumer Staples and Healthcare were key laggards. The INR was down 0.5%MoM, closing at ~74.65/USD in January. Yields continued on an upward trajectory with the 10y benchmark trading in a range of 6.46%-6.75% and eventually ending the month 23 bps higher m-o-m at 6.68%. The 10y benchmark averaged 6.60% over the month of January. Bond yields however fell sharply on January 31 after the government switched government securities and oil bonds worth Rs1.2 tn with the RBI, with around Rs636 bn maturing in FY2023.

In terms of global developments, against the backdrop of high inflation and a tight labor market, the Fed pointed out that it will soon be appropriate to raise the policy rate—confirming widespread expectations for a March liftoff. The FOMC also announced that tapering of asset purchases will end in early March. In addition, Chair Powell's remarks in the press conference seemed quite hawkish when he mentioned that the economic conditions presently are very different than during the post-GFC hiking cycle, with the economy and the labor market stronger than they were then and inflation running well above the Fed's 2% target.

On the domestic front, the RBI continued to deploy variable rate reverse repo (VRRR) as its primary liquidity management tool, nudging the overnight rates higher. In fact, in one of the weeks, owing to larger than anticipated collections under the goods and services tax (GST), tightening in system liquidity pushed the overnight rates comfortably above 4%, prompting the RBI to announce variable rate repo auctions. Meanwhile, the RBI continued its OMO sales in January, although the quantum moderated significantly towards the end of the month.

In commodities, oil prices continued their momentum from previous month, gaining 17.4% in January. Brent crude averaged USD85.48/bbl over the month. Gold prices ended the month 1.6% lower than December close.

GDP: The NSO estimates FY2022 real GDP growth at 9.2%. With 1HFY22 GDP growth at 13.7%, the implied 2HFY22 GDP growth is at 5.6%. The key driver of 2HFY22 growth is expected to be government at 13.9% growth (1% in 1HFY22) and GFCF growth at 6.1% in 2HFY22 (28.3% in 1HFY22). Private consumption growth is pegged to remain relatively weak at 1.8% in 2HFY22 (13.5% in 1HFY22). Exports growth in 2HFY22 is estimated at 6.4% (28.2% in 1HFY22) and imports at 15% (49% in 1HFY22). Nominal GDP growth has been pegged at 17.6% implying a GDP deflator of around 7.7%. In absolute terms, it is pegged at Rs232 tn.

IIP: November IIP growth moderated to 1.47% (October: 4%), declining sequentially by 4.7% as the festive season impact faded. Compared to November 2019, IIP was marginally lower by 0.2%. On a sectoral basis, mining activity grew by 5% (October: 11.5%), electricity production by 2.1% (October: 3.1%), and manufacturing by 0.9% (3.1%). As per the use-based classification, infrastructure/construction goods grew by 3.8% followed by primary goods by 3.5%, and intermediate goods by 2.5%, and consumer non-durables by 0.8%. On the other hand, capital goods production contracted by 3.7% and consumer durables contracted by 5.6%.

CPI: December CPI inflation shot up to 5.59% as against 4.91% in November. Sequentially, headline CPI fell by 0.4% (+0.7% mom in November), led by a 1.2% mom decline in food prices (+1.3% mom in November). Food inflation increased to 4% yoy (November: 1.9%) due to adverse base effects. Core inflation (CPI excluding food, fuel, pan and tobacco) moderated 10 bps to 6.2%, led by a softer sequential pickup of 0.1% (0.4% mom in November). Prices increased across all categories led by transport, clothing and footwear, and recreation. On a sequential basis, only housing prices declined by 0.5% (seasonal impact).

Trade Deficit: The merchandise trade deficit narrowed to USD17.9 bn in January from USD21.7 bn in December, reflecting sequential weakness in both exports and imports. Export growth moderated to 23.7% from 38.9% in December. Import growth fell to 23.7% from 38.6% in December. January trade data reflected the impact of the Omicron wave and capture the lagged effects of lower oil prices; both have now reversed. However, the impact of the third wave outside the transportation sector appears to have been limited; sequential momentum in core imports remained flat. Top export contributors included engineering goods, textiles, electronic goods and plastic & linoleum, while top import contributors were electronic goods, chemicals, coal, vegetable oils and non-ferrous metals, reflecting the dual role of higher commodity prices and volumes.

Fiscal deficit: The fiscal deficit stood at 50.4% of the Budget Estimates, as compared to 145.5% in the same period last year. In absolute terms, the fiscal deficit was at Rs7,59,366 crore at the end of December. The main contributors to the lower fiscal deficit were higher net tax revenues at 95.4% of BE vs 58.8% in the corresponding period previous year and non-tax revenues at 106.7% vs 32.8% in the same period last year. At the same time, total expenditure was marginally lower at 72.4% for the period vs 75% in the same period last year.

Deal flow was tepid in January with 13 deals worth ~$0.54bn executed (vs 18 deals worth ~$2.2bn in Dec). Key deals included IPO of AGSTRA ($91mn.

Fils continued being net sellers in the month of January 2022 and were net sellers to the tune of -$4.5bn even as DII buying continued +$2.9bn, driven by both MFs +$1.4bn and Insurance +$1.6bn.

Equity Market Outlook

Price to Book - Trailing

Source: NSE

- Quarterly Earnings: December quarter earnings have started. As usual, there have been a few hits and a few misses. The Banking space has seen better than expected nos with Credit costs being lower than expected and loan growth starting to come back. At the same time some consumer facing companies have been below expectations due to higher raw material inflation. There is a likelihood that the earnings upgrade cycle may halt for the time being.
- Covid: Cases/Vaccinations: Omicron cases rose sharply while hospitalizations remained in check. Total India daily case load showed a sharp rise; however, the effect of Omicron variant was much milder. As announced in the previous month, vaccinations for children in the 15 to 18 years age group began.
- Unlock: With Increase in Omicron cases, there are some lockdowns again in some of the States mostly related to Movie halls, Malls. However with Omicron threat being lower, Schools are reopening in Maharashtra for all grades. Gradual opening up of the economy is ow exepected barring any more virus related shocks. The good part about the third wave is that the mortality rates are in check.
- Politics-Farm Laws: After the farm laws were repealed, farm unions ended their year-long agitation and left the sites they occupied on Delhi borders as the government accepted most of their demands in a signed letter.

Debt Market Outlook

Source: Bloomberg

Domestic government bond yields continued their uptrend in January amidst disappointing auction results, fiscal concerns, higher oil prices and tightening in global financial conditions. With the Fed shifting its focus from tolerating inflation to addressing inflation, the US Treasury yields made a strong move, with the 10 year ending January 26 bps higher at 1.77%. Oil prices also moved higher amidst geopolitical tensions, and limited economic impact of Omicron variant. Domestically, the coupon for the new 10-year benchmark was set at 6.54%, but demand for dated papers remained muted. Discomfort with higher yields pushed RBI to devolve, although that had limited impact in arresting the sell-off, especially since the RBI continued its OMO sales (even though the quantum has moderated recently).

Bond markets, however, ended January on a slighly optimistic note when the government switched government securities and oil bonds worth Rs1.2 tn with the RBI, with around Rs636 bn maturing in FY2023. This led to a build-up in expectation that the government may keep the overall gross borrowing for FY2023 at a somewhat manageable level, with the 10-year rallying by 9 bps on January 31, 2022. Despite this, the 10 year bond yield ended the month 23 bps higher at 6.68% compared to 6.45% in December. The 10y benchmark averaged 6.60% over the month of January. The Union Budget is the next big event and bulk of the recent sell off in the the market is in anticipation of a large borrowing quantum for FY2023. Markets also await further clarity on the progress made towards bond-index inclusion. In addition, markets will watch out for the MPC policy outcome due on February 9, and wait for further signals towards policy normalization.
