I. TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Proof of Age

The premium has been calculated on the basis of the age of the life insured as declared by him/her in the proposal form. If at a future date, the age is found to be different from the age declared, without prejudice to the Company's other rights and remedies including those under the Insurance Act, 1938, and any other laws then prevailing, the policy will automatically be converted to a policy for an amended sum assured based on :

- . the correct age at entry,
- . the premium rates then in force, and
- . the premiums paid on the policy,

subject to any additional underwriting required, the other terms and conditions of the contract remaining the same.

If the correct age is such as would have made the life insured ineligible for any of the benefits (including riders) of this policy, without prejudice to the Company's other rights and remedies including those under the Insurance Act, 1938, and any other laws then prevailing, the benefits shall be altered to those generally granted by the Company based on :

- . the correct age at entry,
- . the premium rates then in force, and
- . the premiums paid on the policy,

subject to any additional underwriting required by the Company.

If this is not possible, the policy shall be cancelled from the date of commencement and premiums shall be refunded after deducting expenses incurred by the Company.

2. Payment of Premiums

An annual premium is payable in advance on the anniversary of the date of commencement of the policy. However, with the consent of the Company, the premium can be paid by half-yearly or quarterly installments.

A grace period of 30 days from the due date of payment will be allowed for payment of premiums. If the premium is not paid on or before the expiry of the grace period, the policy will automatically lapse.

If death occurs within the grace period and before the payment of the premium then due, and the death claim is admitted, the claim will be settled after deducting that premium and the balance of the year's premium for cases where the premium is not paid annually in advance.

If death occurs when premiums are paid up to date, and the death claim is admitted, the claim will be settled after deducting the balance of the year's premium for cases where the premium is not paid annually in advance.

3. Revival of Lapsed Policy

When the premium is not paid within the grace period, as mentioned in 2 above, the policy together with the rider benefit shall lapse from the due date of the unpaid premium. However, the policyholder can revive the lapsed policy with or without rider benefits added to the basic policy, by making an application within a period of five years from the due date of the first unpaid premium.

The policy may be revived on the following terms:

- within six months from the due date of the first unpaid premium; without evidence of health; on payment of
a. premiums in arrears,
and;

b. 6% of the premiums in arrears as an administration charge.

- after six months but within five years from the due date of first unpaid premium and before the original cease date of the policy;
- on production of evidence of good health and good habits to the satisfaction of the Company and also the evidence of there being no adverse change in the personal or family history or occupation;

The Company may at its absolute discretion accept or decline the request for revival (made by the policyholder in writing) of a lapsed policy, or accept the request for revival on such terms and conditions as it deems fit.
