

Information regarding switch to modified products

Based on changes in IRDA Regulations with respect to Product Design , we are in the process of revamping our product portfolio and will be launching new products .Prospective Policyholders can get in touch with KLI representative for further details. Both existing as well as prospective policyholders have an option to switch over to the modified version if any, once introduced.