Month Gone By – Markets

Month Gone By – Markets (period ended December 31, 2021)

Markets moved up but only slightly as surging cases of omicron, rising inflation, and a hawkish tone by the global central banks weighed heavily on sentiments. The Nifty index closed 2.2% higher for the month of December. IT and Materials have been the frontrunner sectors while Telecom and Energy have been the laggards. The INR witnessed a bit of volatility over the month as interest rate policies began to turn averaging around 75.4 with a monthly best and worst of 74.3 and 76.2 respectively. Yields continued on an upward trajectory with the 10y benchmark trading in a range of 6.35%-6.48% and eventually ending the month 12bps higher m-o-m at 6.45%. The 10y benchmark averaged 6.41% over the month of December.

One of the major events for the month of December was the FOMC meeting. As expected, the FOMC doubled the monthly pace of asset purchase tapering to USD 30bn, putting purchases on track to be concluded by March. The median forecast “dot” plot now signals that the FOMC plans to hike three times next year, three times in 2023 and two times in 2024 with terminal rate expected to be 2.00-2.25% in 2024. The Bank of England became the first major central bank to raise policy rates as it increased policy rate by 15bps to 0.25% basing its decision on a strong labour market and surging inflation while seeing through the risk of Omicron. On the other hand, the European Central Bank (ECB) detailed a very gradual tapering of QE over the next three years, with the Pandemic Emergency Purchase Programme (PEPP) ending in March 2022, but the Asset Purchase Programme (APP) continuing. The ECB has stated that net QE purchases will end shortly before it starts raising key interest rates. ECB President Lagarde confirmed that it was “very unlikely” that the ECB will raise rates in 2022 with current high inflation still deemed “transitory”.

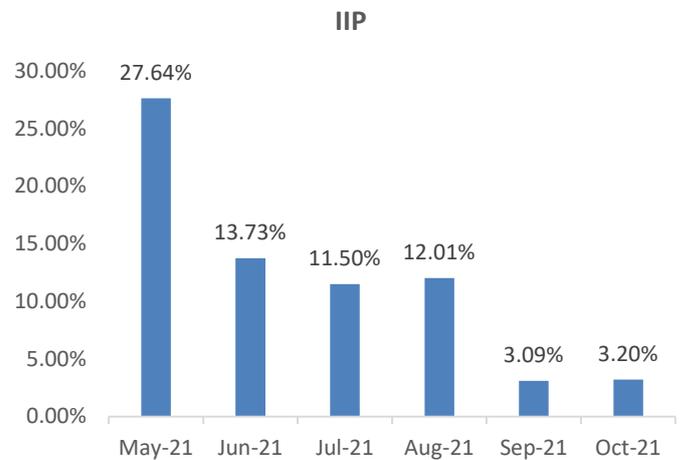

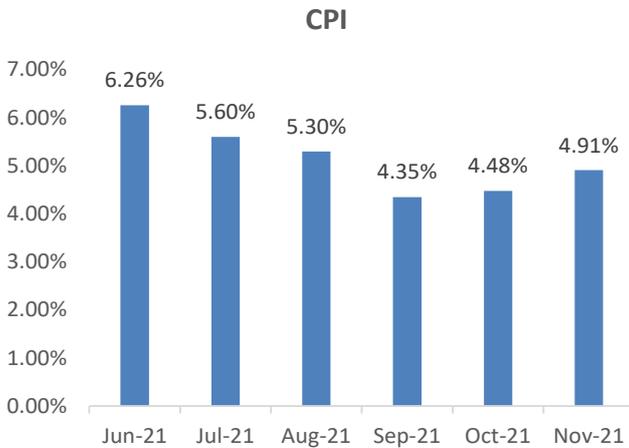

On the domestic front, the RBI stayed put on policy rates while continuing to focus on liquidity tightening. The MPC maintained its guidance of a continued accommodative stance as long as necessary to revive and sustain growth on a durable basis while ensuring that inflation remains within the target going forward. Governor Das stated that the RBI seeks to rebalance the liquidity surplus by shifting it from the fixed rate reverse repo window to the variable rate reverse repo (VRRR) with the 14-day VRRR auction as the main liquidity management tool. The RBI maintained its FY22 GDP growth projection of 9.5% y-o-y and its FY22 CPI inflation forecast at 5.3%.

In commodities, Brent crude averaged USD 74.3/bbl over the month. However, a pickup in prices post the sharp dip at the close of last month saw Brent crude up 11% on a m-o-m basis. Gold edged higher by 3.1% over the month as risk-off sentiments resurfaced.

IIP: October IIP registered a growth of 3.2% (September: 3.1%) led largely by a pick-up in sequential momentum (4.5% m-o-m) on the back of the festive season demand. On a sectoral basis, mining picked up by 11.4% (September: 8.6%), electricity production by 3.1% (0.9%), and manufacturing activity by 2% (2.7%). Compared to October 2019, IIP was 8% higher and witnessed growth across the board (manufacturing was higher by 7%, mining by 10%, and electricity production by 15%). As per the use-based classification, capital goods and consumer durable production contracted by 1.1% (September: +2.4%) and 6.1% (September: (-)1.9%) respectively. Meanwhile, production of primary, intermediate goods, consumer non-durables and infrastructure/ construction maintained a positive momentum.

CPI: November CPI inflation came in softer than expectations at 4.91% (October: 4.48%) on the back of lower-than-expected sequential pickup in food prices. Food inflation increased to 1.9% (October: 0.8%) primarily led by sequential rise in prices of vegetables, fruits, and eggs, while prices of meat and fish and oil and fats declined and pulses remained muted. Core inflation (CPI excluding food, fuel, pan and tobacco) at 6.3%, rose by 30 bps from October while increasing sequentially by 0.4% (0.7% m-o-m in October). Prices increased across all categories led by transport, clothing and footwear, and recreation. On a sequential basis, the prices of transport and communication declined by 0.6% m-o-m, reflecting the partial impact of excise duty cuts on petroleum prices.

Trade Deficit: December trade deficit at USD 22bn was only marginally lower than the record highs of September and November. Export growth has been robust, rising 37% from 27.2% in November, with a strong sequential uptick (24.1% m-o-m). In 9MFY22, exports at USD 301.3bn increased by 50% over 9MFY21 and by 26% over 9MFY20. Imports also remained strong, rising 38.1% in December, a moderation from 56.6% in November, mainly reflecting adverse base effect. In 9MFY22, imports at USD 441.5bn increased by 70% over 9MFY21 and by 21.2% over 9MFY20. Trade deficit for 9MFY22 was at USD 140.2bn (USD 59.1bn in 9MFY21 and USD 125.9bn in 9MFY20).

CAD and BoP: The current account registered a deficit of USD 9.6bn (1.3% of GDP) in Q2FY22 against a surplus of USD 6.5bn in Q1FY22 (0.9% of GDP). The deficit was led by a widening of the trade deficit to USD 44.4bn (Q1FY22: USD 30.7bn) and an increase in net investment income outflow of USD 10bn (USD 7bn in Q1FY22). Exports were at USD 105bn (USD 97.4bn in Q1FY22) but imports increased to USD 149.3bn (USD 128.2bn in Q1FY22). Non-oil imports rose to USD 110bn reflecting increased domestic demand following the easing of restrictions in the second Covid wave. Meanwhile, capital account balance increased to USD 40bn (USD 25.5bn in Q1FY22) led by USD 17.9bn of SDR allocation from IMF. FPI flows increased to USD 4bn on account of debt flows (USD 0.4bn in Q1FY22) while FDI inflows moderated to USD 9bn (USD 12bn in Q1FY22). BOP surplus in Q2FY22 was at USD 31.2bn (USD 31.9bn in Q1FY22) which would have been USD 13.3bn without IMF's SDR allocation.

Fiscal deficit: The fiscal deficit stood at 46.2% of the Budget Estimates, as compared to 135.1% in the same period last year. In absolute terms, the fiscal deficit was at Rs 6,95,614 crore at the end of November. The main contributors to the lower fiscal deficit were higher net tax revenues at 73.5% of BE vs 42.1% in the corresponding period previous year and non-tax revenues at 91.8% vs 32.3% in the same period last year. At the same time, total expenditure was marginally lower at 59.6% for the period vs 62.7% in the same period last year.

Equity Market Outlook

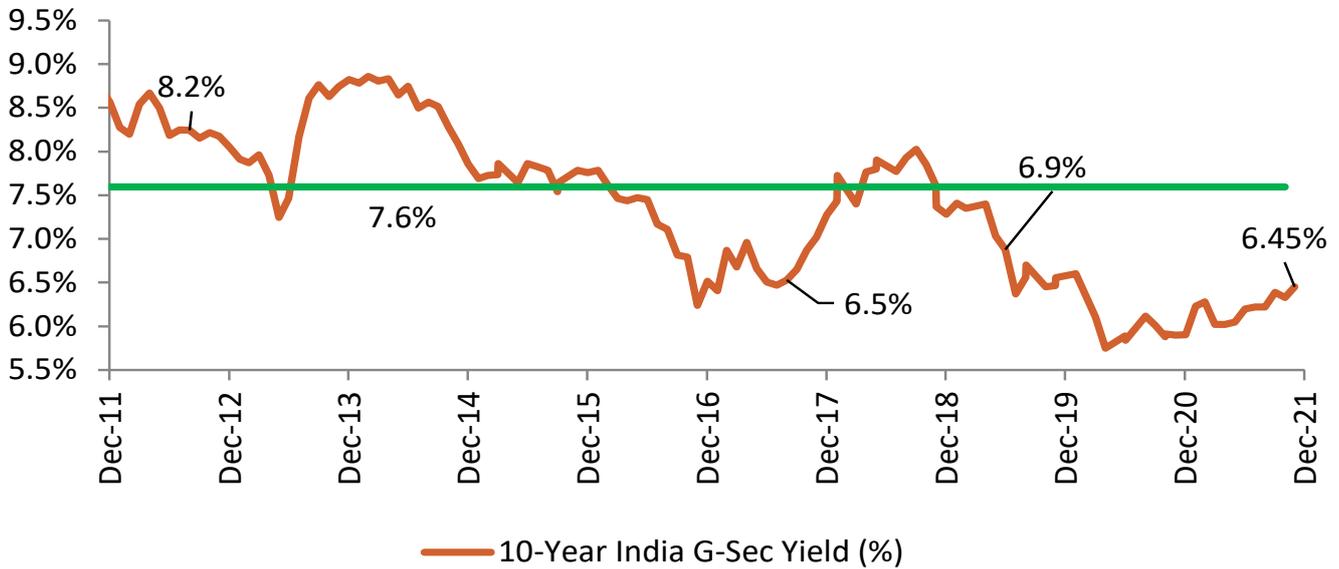

Price to Book - Trailing

Source: NSE

- Quarterly Earnings: December quarter earnings will start soon. There is a likelihood that the earnings upgrade cycle may halt for the time being. It is being expected that sectors like Autos which have more to do with the Chip shortage issue, which is getting better at the margin, Cement, Metals could see some cut in Consensus nos. At the same time, Earnings from IT cos and also a few BFSI cos are expected to be better than market expectations.
- Covid: Cases/Vaccinations: Covid cases have surged in the country as India witnessed 1400+ Omicron cases by Dec-end and total daily cases shot up to ~23k. Several states have put covid related restrictions such as closure of theatres and gyms, night curfews and reduced capacity in restaurants, bars etc. With >1.4bn doses administered, ~60% of eligible population was fully vaccinated.
- Unlock: With fall in Covid cases, states eased restrictions by allowing higher capacity, longer working hours etc. However, Omicron variant has started to pose a risk to phase-wise unlocking in some states. Infact, States like Maharashtra & Delhi have already started to put some curbs back on including Schools, Theatres etc. Some states have cut down on Daily Flights from affected Cities. With the Rapid Spread of this variant, State Govts are expected to react in different ways though. As of now Hospitalisation and Mortality- both seem to be quite low, even in Countries like the US where cases are at an time high, but Mortality is under control.
- Politics-Farm Laws: After the farm laws were repealed, farm unions ended their year-long agitation and left the sites they occupied on Delhi borders as the government accepted most of their demands in a signed letter.

Debt Market Outlook

Yields were on an unidirectional trend upwards in December till they stabilized in the band of 6.46-6.47% later in the month before ending at 6.45%. Despite the RBI staying put on rates, yields have been pushing higher as the market tries to price in the “stealth tightening”. The RBI gave a clear signal of its intent to balance the excess liquidity still prevailing in market and this pushed up yields on the shorter-end while supply continues to weigh on the longer-end. In particular, it was the announcement of the 3Day Variable Rate Reverse Repo auction (VRRR) that the market drew strong inferences from. Governor Das had stated in the MPC meeting that the RBI seeks to rebalance the liquidity surplus by shifting it from the fixed rate reverse repo window to the variable rate reverse repo (VRRR) with the 14-day VRRR auction as the main liquidity management tool. As more liquidity is absorbed via the auction at rates higher than the reverse repo rate the weighted average rate will move even closer to the repo rate, at which point the adjustment in the fixed rate reverse repo may just be a technicality. On the last day of the month and calendar year, the RBI also indicated its discomfort on existing yield levels in the market as it cancelled INR 170bn of the auction, of which INR 130bn was of the 10y benchmark, against the total amount of INR 240bn. The market is also expecting the announcement of a new 10y benchmark shortly as the current benchmark is close to its optimal outstanding issuance. The Union Budget is the next big event and the market would attempt to price the event in coming weeks. On the whole, the month of December saw the 10y benchmark continue its uptrend trading in a range of 6.35%-6.48% and eventually ending the month 12bps higher m-o-m at 6.45%. The 10y benchmark averaged 6.41% over the month of December.
